Dear Hubert Lukasz Miazek,

Congratulations on passing the Zend Certified PHP Engineer exam! Being a Zend Certified Engineer puts you among an elite group that will continue to lead the growth of PHP.

The benefits you inherit by becoming a Zend Certified Engineer include:

- Global recognition of your PHP skills
- Advantage over competitors when looking for a new job; or at your annual salary review
- Listing on the Zend Certified Engineer Directory for PHP Professionals
- ZCE LinkedIn Group membership
- Discounts on selected Zend PHP conferences

Whether you are distributing an application, seeking employment, bidding on contract work, or pursuing career advancement, your new status as a Zend Certified Engineer provides tangible and verifiable advantages.

You are welcome and encouraged to add the Zend Certified Engineer logo, found at: <http://www.zend.com/services/certification/zce-logo>, on your website or online resume with a link back to Zend that documents and authenticates your status. Use the link: <http://www.zend.com/en/yellow-pages#show-ClientCandidateID=ZEND024255>

You can now add weblinks (example: your company site, LinkedIn, Twitter, Odesk) and a short bio to your listing in the ZCE Directory. Just go to your ZCE Profile tab in your Zend Account.

To join the LinkedIn group, after setting up your LinkedIn account, use the following invitation link: <http://www.linkedin.com/e/gis/42193/0E2C1F5E0024>

If you are looking for contracting or part time work, oDesk has created a ZCE Group you'll want to join to help you stand out from the crowd with your PHP knowledge. You can join the Group today by visiting: www.odesk.com/info/zend

Best of luck and happy PHP'ing.

Sincerely,
